

The FCC should prevent Sinclair Broadcasting from airing it's anti-Kerry movie on public airways for political advertising purposes. This is unfair, and possibly illegal, unless the Democrats are given equal time to address this political attack from the Republican Party. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more bias and more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you
Judi Morgenson